

When people come to play music as they do to play bridge, civilization will have taken the longest stride forward since the beginning of time. ~Jascha Heifetz

The Lubbock Civic Orchestra was founded in the Fall of 2018 with the intention of bringing great orchestral music to the community with free concerts and outreach programs, while also providing community amateur and semi-professional musicians a platform for utilizing their talents for service to Lubbock and the surrounding areas.

Lubbock Civic Orchestra is funded in partnership with Lubbock Christian University with an educational mission to reach the community of Lubbock as an artistic ensemble.
